

purple DIARY – "STORYLINES" GROUP SHOW at the Guggenheim, New York

JUNE 5 2015 : ART

Haegue Yang, "Series of Vulnerable Arrangements - Voice and Wind", 2009

Bringing together over one hundred works from the Guggenheim's contemporary collection, Storylines examines the diverse ways in which artists today engage narrative through installation, painting, photography, sculpture, video, and performance. For these artists, storytelling does not necessarily require plots, characters, or settings. Rather, narrative potential lies in everyday objects and materials, and their embedded cultural associations. In projects created through extensive research, acts of appropriation, or performance, the artists in Storylines uncover layers of meaning, turning to individual experience as a means of conveying shared stories, whether real or fictional.
