

Gyeonggi Province. Ticket
won. Located near exit
Government Complex
ation, subway line 4. For ution, call (02) 500-1404
gcs.or.kr

Art Exhibitions

Eom Eun-soul Gallery A Through March 8

Painter Eom Eun-soul is holding a solo exhibition at the Gallery A in Seongnam, Gyeonggi Province. Located near exit 2 of Sujin Station, subway line 8. For more information, call (031) 606-0679 or visit blog.naver.com/dr2612.

'The Various Sketchbooks' Hangaram Art Museum, Seoul Arts Center* Through March 10

The Hangaram Art Museum, a unit of the Seoul Arts Center, features the quirky sketch drawings of 11 female artists through March 10. Admission is free. For more information, call (02) 580-1300 or visit www.sac.or.kr.

'Familiar Landscape' 57th Gallery Through March 11

Painter Park Hyung-jin is holding his first solo exhibition at the 57th Gallery in central Seoul through March 11. Located near exit 6 of Anguk Station, subway line 3. For more information call (02) 733-2657 or visit www.57gallery.co.kr.

Lee Doo-han Yesong Museum of Art Through March 14

Definitive works of painter Lee Doo-han are on display at the Yesong Museum of Art in southeastern Seoul. Admission is free. Located near exit 7 of Seokchon Station, subway line 8. For more information, call (02) 2147-2810 or visit www.songpa.go.kr.

'Another Art' Seongnam Arts Center* March 15-April 4

Hundreds of posters of plays, musicals and performances that took place between 19th and 20th century will be displayed at the Seongnam Arts Center from March 15 to April 4. Tickets

Julian Opie Kukje Gallery Through March 23

British artist Julian Opie is holding an exhibition at the Kukje Gallery in central Seoul through March 23. The display highlights his new works taken in Korea, including "Walking in Sadang-dong in the rain." Admission is free. Located near exit 1 of Anguk Station, subway line 3. For more information, call (02) 735-8449 or visit www.kukjegallery.com.

'LIFE Photo Exhibition' Busan Cultural Center Through April 12

An exhibition featuring iconic photos from the American magazine LIFE, published from 1883 to 1936, is displayed at the gallery in Busan. The displayed items include images of historical figures like Kim Gu, Mahatma Gandhi and Winston Churchill and also of some of the defining moments in contemporary world history. Located near exit 5 of Daeyeon-dong Station, Busan subway line 2. Tickets cost 8,000 to 12,000 won. For more information, call (051) 612-6619 or visit www.seelife.co.kr.

Kim A-reum Shinhan Gallery Through April 8

Painter Kim A-reum is holding an exhibition of her works at the Shinhan Gallery in eastern Seoul through April 8. Admission is free. Located near exit 6 of Gwanghwamun Station, subway line 5. For more information, call (02) 722-8493 or visit www.shinhangallery.co.kr.

'The Great American Icons' Opera Gallery Through April 20

An exhibition featuring works of American pop artists Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein is taking place at the Opera Gallery in southern Seoul through April 20. Admission is free. Located near exit 5 of Apgujeong Rodeo Station, subway Bundang line. For more information, call (02) 3446-0070 or visit www.operagallery.com.

'Photosight' National Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art, Korea Through June 29

The exhibition features some of