

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.

Art Basel in Hong Kong

23 March, 2016 | Kin Cheung

Among the works on display: Gold-plated cubes made to be defaced, political embroidery from the two Koreas and a dog you can stick your head in

'Chandeliers for Five Cities,' the latest in a series of embroidered works created by South Korean artist Ham Kyungah with the help of unidentified North Korean artisans.

URL: <http://www.wsj.com/articles/art-basel-in-hong-kong-1458719237>